Dear Patriot,

Okay, we admit it. Everything is crazy!!

The election in Brazil looks eerily familiar.

The First Lady, yes, THE FIRST LADY, negotiated a cease fire between Ukraine and Russia.

Our Ambassador to the UN, Mike Waltz, called out the communists in Cuba with th receipts of their fraud and theft. There was shouting.

Venezuela sent President Trump a gift…ONE MILLION BARRELS of oil.

Consumer confidence numbers blew past the expert's estimates. Are we happier th they tell us we are?

Trump and JD are barnstorming the entire country to win the midterms, pulling in enormously enthusiastic crowds.

There is not one Demoncrat candidate anywhere who is remotely competent not t mention sane, but, the voting is supposedly tight.

Then there is THIS one.

And THIS one.

The Demoncrats in office are protecting and harboring people like this so ICE can not remove them.

Some Obama judge won't let the President cut down dead trees.

It is crazy.

Take a deep breath. PRAY for our nation. And if you have yet to vote, dear Lord, do today!

If the above is not enough for you, here is some more news...

- lowest since 1975.
- keep praying for all children.
- cuffing illegal voters.

1- While we are still seeing stories of horrific crimes committed by people who shou have been in jail, overall, the country is safer because Trump believes in the law enforcement...unlike all Demoncrats.

New Federal Crime Numbers Show Dramatic One-Year Drop After Trump's Firs Year of the Second Term

>
> The new data showed particularly steep declines in aggravated assault, robbery, burglary, and motor vehicle theft.
>
> The National Crime Victimization Survey, conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau a released by the Justice Department's Bureau of Justice Statistics, estimates crime experienced by Americans age 12 and older and households, including incidents never reported to police.
>
> The Justice Department says the declines, from the last year of the Biden administration to the first year of the second Trump administration, are the large single-year declines in the history of the survey that began in 1973.
>
> "This report is proof that President [Donald] Trump's 'Make America Safe Again' agenda is working," Associate Attorney General Stanley Woodward said in a statement. "Under President Trump and Attorney General Blanche, the safety of l abiding Americans will always come first."
>
> The survey estimated Americans age 12 and older experienced about 7.5 million violent victimizations in 2025. That's down from 8.2 million in 2024, the final year the Joe Biden administration.

> The Justice Department further points to stepped-up drug enforcement, citing a reported 25% increase in fentanyl seizures, as another factor contributing to the declines in victimization.
>
> Further, the department notes the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives reported a 57% increase in criminal charges associated with its gun-trafficking enforcement efforts, while the FBI disrupted 1,800 gangs and criminal enterprises.

2- This is why President Trump calls him 'The Best AG in the Country". Paxton has a long list of actions that help Americans. None of it is ever covered.

This is just the start of helping children who have been mutilated by the cult of transgender and Paxton forced them into it.

Texas Children's Hospital officially opens first-ever 'detransition clinic' after settlement with AG Paxton

> QUOTE: Texas Children's Hospital has officially opened its first-of-its-kind detransition clinic under a settlement it reached with Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton in May.

Paxton, who is also the Republican nominee for the U.S. Senate from Texas, announced the opening of the clinic on Tuesday

"BREAKING: The nation's first-ever Detransition Clinic is now open as a result of r historic settlement with Texas Children's Hospital," he wrote on X.

An accompanying press release from his office described the new care center as multidisciplinary clinic that provides medical care to patients who previously underwent gender-transition interventions."

Patients can receive detransition-related medical care through age 21, while detransition-related obstetric and gynecologic care is offered to patients older th 21. Paxton's office added that patients may receive services at different Texas Children's locations, depending on their individual needs and care team recommendations.

The clinic is a major pillar of the settlement, which additionally required the hosp to pay $10 million for claims brought by Paxton under the Texas Health Care Program Fraud Prevention Act for billing Texas Medicaid for "unallowable and ille 'gender-transition' interventions."

Multiple physicians were also stripped of their medical privileges for performing mutilating treatments on minors.

Texas Children's previously offered a range of controversial services to gender dysphoric minors seeking to "change their gender," including puberty blockers – medications intended to "pause" puberty, and hormone therapy — hormones including testosterone and estrogen used to promote the development of physic characteristics associated with the opposite sex.

The settlement also permanently prohibited Texas Children's from performing surgical procedures on minors, which can sterilize and remove healthy tissue fron patients.

3- These cases include voting by aliens in federal elections and false claims of U.S. citizenship to register to vote or to vote. The thing that Demoncrats and Artificial N love to tell us never happens keeps on happening.

The DOJ is making one thing abundantly clear: if you're not an American citizen, elections are not for you.

You can read about each case at the link but, frankly, they are pretty much all the same. It is good to see all the handcuffed illegals.
