Dear Patriot,

> Today's Newsletter is going to ALL of our subscribers ... PAID & FREE.

There have been numerous reports, showing up on X/Twitter, about "secret" Demoncrats plans to cause all sorts of mayhem in America, regardless of the results of the midterms. We might call it ... insurrection.

Today, we provide you with some of these reports and links for more research. The more people know about their plans the better we might be in dealing with the situation. We do not want to panic but we also want you to be aware of the rumblings we are picking up.

Over the past months we have seen the utter insanity and incompetence of all the candidates the Demoncrats put forward in every midterm race.

Here's the thing...they don't care. The Demoncrats do not care that their candidates are dangerous and absurd. The candidates are the distraction. If we are howling over how bad they are we are not paying attention to other things they are planning and doing.

1- In addition to DataRepublican, Investigative Reporter Natalie Winters has unearthed 14 pages of plans written by the far, deep left to reject the results of the midterm. Go to the link for all the information and the receipts.

Thread Reader from Natalie Winter's X feed.

EXCLUSIVE: I obtained internal election strategy memos from a network connected to Norm Eisen—revealing its partners' backchannel with election officials and the anti-Trump talking points circulated to allies.

The documents spell out which officials to amplify, which election claims to avoid repeating, and how to frame Trump as preparing to reject the midterms.

Their distribution instruction:

"It may not be shared outside of the ESRN and is not intended to be shared publicly or with the press."

Here's what I found.

The network is the Election Safeguards Response Network—ESRN.

People's Action identifies Norm Eisen, Obama's former ethics official, as its executive director.

In an April 20 internal memo, ESRN describes national and state partners preparing for disputes involving ballots and election materials.

It reports that partners are:

"maintaining open lines of communication with election officials."

The next section lays out how allies should shape the public response.

I found explicit instructions to amplify Michigan's statewide election officials—alongside messaging guidance, a social media toolkit and prepared scripts.

2- Watch this short clip explaining the playbook written by globalist socialist/communist to take power in America.

Promethean Action on You Tube

> QUOTE: Barbara Boyd follows Data Republican's files on former officials preparing around the Insurrection Act and 2028, the Democratic Socialists of America's platform, this month's riots in France and Noëlle Lenoir's interview with Michael Shellenberger, and closes with Marco Rubio and Jared Isaacman on the President, the American System, and making the November 3 midterms too big to rig.

3- We are pretty sure that once you are CIA you are always CIA. This Demoncrat Senator, former CIA, visited Poland with despicable Thom Tillis in September. And now, Poland is fighting for it's very life! All while she is orchestrating a coup in the United States.

Elissa Slotkin Just Revealed Her Ties to Color Revolutions in Europe's Last Two Free Countries

> QUOTE: "Seditious Six" Sen. Elissa Slotkin (D-MI) is no longer in contrition mode after exposing herself to scrutiny for openly plotting a post-election coup against the duly elected president and his supporters.
> Rather, she is doubling down, and even offering a sneak preview of what's to come by acknowledging her recent pow-wows in European countries that are likewise attempting to meddle in or overturn elections with help from oligarchs like the Soros family.
> As exposed by our colleagues at Townhall, Slotkin recently boasted about a visit to Budapest, which succeeded in ousting Trump-allied President Viktor Orbán in April, in an election of deep personal interest to George Soros, as it is his home country.
> "I just went to Hungary. I went over to Budapest because they just got rid of their authoritarian leader after 16 years. And I'm like, 'How did you handle 16 years of corruption?'" Slotkin admitted on camera.
> Slotkin went on to list beautification projects like the White House ballroom and Reflecting Pool cleanup efforts as some of the petty lawfare targets leftists will use in their future efforts to impeach Trump and his allies, should Democrats reclaim the House majority.
> Hungary's refusal to support the NATO-backed war in Ukraine had long been a sore spot for Soros allies, who were deeply involved in the efforts to establish it as ground zero for their globalist new-world order.

The smear attacks on Orbán, with so-called think tanks calling him a threat to "democracy" and a pawn of Putin, should ring familiar to anyone over the age of, say, 10.

The role of Ukraine operatives in the Russiagate conspiracy during President Donald Trump's first term has been largely underreported after congressional Republicans failed to hold the perpetrators accountable. However, Ukraine's role in the first impeachment attempt against Trump — over his now-vindicated demands that Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelensky investigate the Biden family's Burisma scandal — was self-evident from the start.

Those plots to undermine Trump's authority fed directly into the successful efforts to install Joe Biden as president in the 2020 election by orchestrating an unprecedented election-meddling operation (for America, at least).

It involved the use of mass mail-in voting (ostensibly due to the pandemic, although it already was being implemented well beforehand) with no possibility of voter verification, as well as vulnerable voting machines that were linked to easily hacked networks where subtle algorithmic tweaks may have shaved off Republican votes in the red-dominated districts of battleground states.

More alarming yet, however, was the deep-state cabal's success in shortwiring the system of checks and balances that, theoretically, would have deterred such efforts — often through sheer intimidation tactics, such as waging relentless lawfare against those seeking, in good faith, to expose them.

Although Dominion Voting Systems succeeded in bullying some outlets into settling SLAPP lawsuits, thereby chilling any serious scrutiny of the voting machines, a judge in one of the adjudicated cases recently determined that the company's defamation claims were baseless. But astoundingly, having gotten away with little-to-no accountability the first time around, leftists seem to be hoping that the public's goldfish-like memory will allow them to use a similar playbook in upcoming elections.

Hungary's potentially coopted election elicited little global outrage, perhaps due to suppression polls that claimed Orbán had become deeply unpopular with voters (sound familiar?). Yet, Brazil's dubious election and the recent unrest in western Europe are likely linked to the same loosely affiliated network of globalist non-governmental organizations, which may still be privately funded even if their prior USAID subsidies have largely been revoked.

More alarming still, however, was Friday's apparent coup attempt in Poland, the one remaining major European country that was refusing to admit droves of Muslim immigrants from the Middle East and Africa.

4- We are guessing there are a lot more than this who need charging.

The DOJ has charged 18 more foreign nationals. These illegals are from Kenya, Bermuda, Guatemala, Italy, Singapore, Jamaica, Colombia, the UK, Greece, the Netherlands, Mexico, Barbados, Argentina, Nigeria, the DR and France have been illegally voting in North Carolina.

Justice Department Charges 18 More Foreign Nationals with Illegally Voting in 2024 Election

> QUOTE: The Department of Justice (DOJ) has charged an additional 18 foreign nationals with illegally voting in North Carolina, a swing state.
> "In our most recent elections in North Carolina — the 2025 municipal elections — there were 14 races decided by two votes; 15 races decided by one vote; and 7 races that were tied," U.S. Attorney Russ Ferguson said. "Every vote matters. And the public must have confidence that our elections are conducted fairly and that every ballot cast is a lawful one."
> Among those charged is 52-year-old Elizabeth Margaret Crudup of Kenya, accused of registering to vote in 2008 and illegally voting in nine general elections in 2024, 2022, 2020, 2018, 2016, 2014, 2012, 2010, and 2008. Crudup is also accused of voting in nine primary elections in 2026, 2024, 2022, 2020, 2018, 2016, 2014, 2010, and 2008.
> Similarly, 64-year-old Gregory Eugene Wade of Bermuda is accused of registering to vote in the year 2000 and illegally voting in 12 general elections, 2024, 2022, 2020, 2018, 2016, 2014, 2012, 2010, 2008, 2004, 2002, and 2000, and the 2020 and 2002 primary elections.
> Those charged with falsely claiming American citizenship are facing up to five years in prison and a $250,000 fine. Those charged with illegally voting face up to a year in prison and a $100,000 fine.
> "Illegal voting is just that: illegal," Acting Deputy Attorney General Trent McCotter said. "If you're not an American citizen, you cannot vote in our federal elections," McCotter said. "We want to prevent illegal voting from occurring, which is why we've now charged 30 people just in North Carolina who have violated our laws by illegally registering to vote and illegally voting. We need to preserve the integrity of the ballot box by ensuring only those eligible are casting ballots."

5- Very quietly, our elegant First Lady brought much needed peace, hope and safety into a warring world.

Melania Trump wrote on X: The mission was a success, delivering critical aid to the region and enabling the evacuation of nearly 800 people.
